

EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

After careful consideration, the court concludes petitioner's objections are without merit. Petitioner alleges that his underlying conviction is not valid; however, a review of the docket for petitioner's criminal conviction reveals petitioner remains convicted. See United States v. Judd, 7:98cr93 (W.D. Tex. Sept. 29, 1999). Petitioner was denied permission to file a successive motion to vacate, set aside or correct sentence by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals on May 21, 2010. Id.

As set forth in the Report, petitioner is no longer confined at the Federal Correctional Complex in Beaumont, Texas. Petitioner has been transferred to the Federal Correctional Institution in Texarkana, Texas. Accordingly, his claims for injunctive relief are moot. See Herman v. Holiday, 238 F.3d 660, 665 (5th Cir. 2001). Moreover, petitioner's claims for injunctive relief are without merit.

ORDER

Accordingly, petitioner's objections are OVERRULED. The findings of fact and conclusions of law of the magistrate judge are correct, and the report of the magistrate judge is ADOPTED. It is therefore ORDERED that petitioner's motions for injunctive relief are DENIED.

SIGNED at Beaumont, Texas, this 21st day of September, 2011.
